

WORDS, WORDS, WORDS

Idioms Explained

See p34-35
in book

Figurative language can be tricky, especially idioms, which are groups of words or expressions that mean something different than what they say.

Can you guess the meaning of each of these idioms?

1. Break the ice

A. The decision is up to you.

2. The ball is in your court

B. Really easy to do

3. Teacher's pet

C. Take something bad and turn it into something good

4. Put your best foot forward

D. Do something to put everyone at ease in a new environment or group of people

5. Piece of cake

E. Good luck and have a great performance

6. Break a leg

F. Do the thing you are best at to get something done

7. Music to my ears

G. Make an effort to try your very best.

8. Work your magic

H. Lose an opportunity due to hesitation

9. When life gives you lemons

I. Someone who is considered the "favorite" student

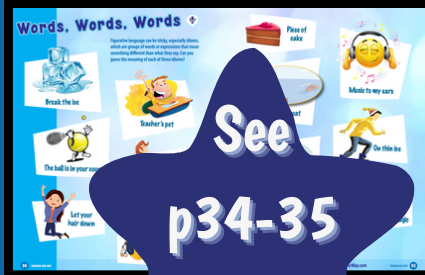

10. Miss the boat

J. News you are really glad to hear about

WORDS, WORDS, WORDS

Idioms Answer Key

See p34-35
in book

Figurative language can be tricky, especially idioms, which are groups of words or expressions that mean something different than what they say.
Can you guess the meaning of each of these idioms?

1. Break the ice

2

A. The decision is up to you.

2. The ball is in your court

5

B. Really easy to do

3. Teacher's pet

9

C. Take something bad and turn it into something good

4. Put your best foot forward

1

D. Do something to put everyone at ease in a new environment or group of people

5. Piece of cake

6

E. Good luck and have a great performance

6. Break a leg

8

F. Do the thing you are best at to get something done

7. Music to my ears

4

G. Make an effort to try your very best.

8. Work your magic

10

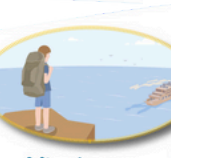

H. Lose an opportunity due to hesitation

9. When life gives you lemons

3

I. Someone who is considered the "favorite" student

10. Miss the boat

7

J. News you are really glad to hear about